Transcription of Letter from John W. McClaskey to a neice.

J.W. McClaskey was a grandson of John McClaskey and Elizabeth Arbuckle. Son of Samuel M. & Mary McClaskey. (he would be a great uncle to our grandma)

Fillmore, MO 4-1-42

Dear Niece & All,

Yours recieved and will say Grandfather McClaskey was Scotch and came to Mo. from Salem, Ind. to Barry Co, Mo. There is old letters in the Bible addressed to John McClaskey 1838 also a letter from the Babtist church dated 1837.

Grandmothers maiden name was Elizabeth Arbuckle. Nationality not known. Their first child was born in 1821. Grandfather was a blacksmith, Farmer and stock raiser, very religious, and interested in politics and all of the McClaskey's were union men during the war. The Wardlows came to Mo. in the 30's from Cincinnati, Ohio. They were what was known as Pennsylvannia Dutch. Mrs. Wade thinks they were Germans but I know they could not speak or understand German.

Grandmother's maiden name was Elizabeth Boyd of Scotch Decent. At the time they came to Mo. they spun their wool wove the cloth and made their clothes and in Ohio they made their sorgum from cane and the women of the early days were hard workers or the Wardlow women were. Hope this will help you.

Emma Sinerly died a year ago last august. She had a number of strokes and after you were here we thought she was going crazy. There are many deaths of old people here. Buried 3 old friends in a week.

Would like to know how the mountain boy mine turned out. IT was NW of the Montana Union depot on the east side of the Gutch. I helped to survey that mine in 91. they hit a vein of silver on a mine 50 feet east of their min.

Hoping to hear from you again J.W. McClaskey

another transcribed letter not all here:

"... Butte all the early diggings.

I saw men that knew him they were mostly prospectors. I will send you a letter referring to Polly Arbuckle & Uncle's James death. I would like you to return them also Fathers commission as Lieutenant. I let Grandfathers bro. wife Joe Mc have several letters. She was a Rayhill.

Your mother was born here on the old home farm as were the rest of us.

Grandfather bought this farm in 1854 and we have added 87 acre north of us the old Allen Farm since you were here making 379 acres. Help is scarce here. There is so many being drafted and noe to go. Hoping to hear from you again. I remain

MILAN SETTLEMENT

A short distance northwest from Hill's Spring, in 1840, then was erected a log cabin, known as the home of Armstead C. Hill, the first settler in the vicinity of Milan. Mr. Hill first settled south of Milan about eight miles, but was not wholly contented with his location, and sought to better himself by the change, and thus became the first settler of the division. Thomas Lane, John Baldrige, Esom Hannon, William Talley, Joseph Couch, FRANCIS Drake, Donnel Doyle, Ira Sears and many others came in 1840 and 1841, so that by the close of the last mentioned year the Milan settlement had become the most important of any in the county. To the north of Milan proper, and near what was afterwards named Jacksons Corners, settled William and Branson Jackson, Samuel Rodgers, Hawkins Harrelson, Jacob Mealman, John Needham and quite a number of others. Hawkins Harrelston is still living and resides on or near his early home.

 MILAN SETTLEMENT

A short distance northwest from Hill's Spring, in 1840, then was erected a log cabin, known as the home of Armstead C. Hill, the first settler in the vicinity of Milan. Mr. Hill first settled south of Milan about eight miles, but was not wholly contented with his location, and sought to better himself by the change, and thus became the first settler of the division. Thomas Lane, John Baldrige, Esom Hannon, William Talley, Joseph Couch, FRANCIS Drake, Donnel Doyle, Ira Sears and many others came in 1840 and 1841, so that by the close of the last mentioned year the Milan settlement had become the most important of any in the county. To the north of Milan proper, and near what was afterwards named Jacksons Corners, settled William and Branson Jackson, Samuel Rodgers, Hawkins Harrelson, Jacob Mealman, John Needham and quite a number of others. Hawkins Harrelston is still living and resides on or near his early home.

Notes for Emma MCCLASKEY:

Birth: Information from Obituary. Mrs. Taylor Dies Suddenly.

Mrs. Emma Taylor died at St. Regis Monday evening about 5:30 after an illness of about 30 minutes. Mrs. Emma McClaskey Taylor was born in Savannah, Mo., Feb. 20, 1871 and had been a resident of Mineral county for the past five years. Before coming to St. Regis she was a high school teacher in Butte and two of her daughters, Mrs. Cecil Murphy and Miss Leah Taylor are teachers in this county at the present time. Mrs. Taylor was the mother of six children, three of whom survive her. Mrs. Ivan E. Merrick of Seattle, Mrs. Cecil Murphy of Saltese and Miss Leah Taylor of St. Regis, a son, Nicholas Taylor, was killed in an auto accident on the St. Regis grade a few years ago. At the time of the death of Mrs. TAYLOR she had just returned from a visit to the business section of the town, and upon reaching her home, she complained of feeling ill. She expired within 30 minutes. Dr. Torpin was called and the ailment was decided to be a heart trouble.

Generation 4 (con't)

The remains were taken to Butte where the funeral services will be held from the home of her sister, Mrs. J. M. Murphy of that city today. Mrs. Taylor was a lady of education and quality and had many friends in the neighborhood where she lived and through the county where her acquaintance extended.

Listed in the 1870 US Census for Jackson Township, Andrew Co., Fillmore PO., Missouri on page 190, Family #364 as Emily, Age 2 on 24 August 1870, born in Missouri. In 1880 she was again listed with her parents in Clay Township, Andrew County, Missouri, ED #36, page 25, family #225 as Emma, 10 years in school on 15 June 1880.

Note: Leah lists children in Emma's family as: Leah, Emma, Nick, and Louise.

Note: from 17 July 1891, says, "Parker, July 14. Miss Emma McClaskey, eldest daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Sm. McClaskey was married a few days in Butte City, Montana. We did not learn of the name of the gentleman."

Notes for Cordelia Jane STUART:
In Memoriam

Caroline Jane Stuart was born in Iowa, March 18, 1894. Her parents moved to Oklahoma when she was a small girl, where she lived until she was united in marriage to John (Robert) McClaskey, November 29, 1913. They moved to Colorado in 1913, where she died at 34 years, 11 months, 22 days.

She leaves a loving husband and six children to mourn her departure; also a mother, four sisters and two brothers.

She was united with the Christian Church in 1910 and was a devoted member until her death.

She was a home loving woman and her time was spent caring for her children.

To her struggles and burdensome earth are ended and we confidently trust that like one who awakes from a troubled dream, she has awakened to see life's endless morning break and knows herself at home with all the vast throng of loved ones, missed from earth, safe about her.

She is still the mother of the dear children, upon whom she doted with such clinging fondness, and the companion of him who mourns earth's greatest loss and may she not by this very transition wield over them a stronger force for goodness and truth than ever before.

--Contributed, Obit

Family stories had it that Cordelia was supposed to have been part Choctaw Indian and belonged to the tribe in Oklahoma. I, Peggy Ann Rowe, Lily McClaskey Rowe's grand daughter heard this story numerous times while growing up. Even grandma began to believe them, as I noticed on her home she had a bumper sticker, "Proud to be a Choctaw Indian." I once wrote Aunt Emeline asking her if we were part Indian. And the answer was an infatic, resounding, "NO". Being young and seeing my grandmothers darker complexion and hair I hung onto the story I was told. I was part Choctaw Indian. It wasn't long after grandma's death that I broke the line wide open and realized that Grandma was no Choctaw Indian. She is German, Scotch-Irish. Her grandparents, Cordelia Jane Stuart's parents, were involved with a land run on an Indian reservation that was opened up for white settlement. I bet you can imagine what Indian tribe that was? One of the five civilized tribes, Oklahoma.... Choctaw. May 23, 2006

Notes for Cordelia Jane STUART:

In Memoriam

Caroline Jane Stuart was born in Iowa, March 18, 1894. Her parents moved to Oklahoma when she was a small girl, where she lived until she was united in marriage to John (Robert) McClaskey, November 29, 1913. They moved to Colorado in 1913, where she died at 34 years, 11 months, 22 days.

She leaves a loving husband and six children to mourn her departure; also a mother, four sisters and two brothers.

She was united with the Christian Church in 1910 and was a devoted member until her death.

She was a home loving woman and her time was spent caring for her children.

Generation 5 (con't)

To her struggles and burdensome earth are ended and we confidently trust that like one who awakes from a troubled dream, she has awakened to see life's endless morning break and knows herself at home with all the vast throng of loved ones, missed from earth, safe about her.

She is still the mother of the dear children, upon whom she doted with such clinging fondness, and the companion of him who mourns earth's greatest loss and may she not by this very transition wield over them a stronger force for goodness and truth than ever before.

Family stories had it that Cordelia was supposed to have been part Choctaw Indian and belonged to the tribe in Oklahoma. I, Peggy Ann Rowe, Lily McClaskey Rowe's grand daughter heard this story numerous times while growing up. Even grandma began to believe them, as I noticed on her home she had a bumper sticker, "Proud to be a Choctaw Indian." I once wrote Aunt Emeline asking her if we were part Indian. And the answer was an infatic, resounding, "NO". Being young and seeing my grandmothers darker complexion and hair I hung onto the story I was told. I was part Choctaw Indian. It wasn't long after grandma's death that I broke the line wide open and realized that Grandma was no Choctaw Indian. She is German, Scotch-Irish. Her grandparents, Cordelia Jane Stuart's parents, were involved with a land run on an Indian reservation that was opened up for white settlement. I bet you can imagine what Indian tribe that was?
