

Mike's Drive Up (aka Mike's Garlic Fries!)

Clyde and I recently got our first orders of garlic fries here. Just wanted to say that we liked it and recommend it! It's in Eureka, CA Article from

Here: <http://www.eurekareporter.com/ArticleDisplay.aspx?ArticleID=27429>

Mike's
Drive
Up: Reliability
in a world
of change
by Laura
Provo
It,
8/20/
2007

Since

1956, when Mike
Hous ehold
er
move d his 13-ye ar-old
busin ess
from his trailer
to the curre nt
locati on of Mike'
s
Drive
Up,
little
has chan ged
about
the
busin ess.
From
the word
play
signs on
the
wall
to the
hand-
cut garlic
fries
and

home made
chili,
the
little
hamb urger
shop
is essen tially
the same as it was more than 50
years
ago,
said
curre nt
owne r
Frank
Carp
enter.
Carp
enter,
who
has owne d and opera ted
the
busin ess
with
his wife Sherr
y for 20
years

, said
the
busin ess
has been run by a few differ ent
famili es
since Hous
ehold
er
retire d,
and
was
purch ased
by Sherr
y's
family in the early 1970 s.
When
her paren ts
retire
d,
she
and Frank
took it over,
and
said
they hope

their son James will take over the business when they retire. The main changes in the business that have occurred in the last 50 years can be counted on one hand: the installation of a soda fountain, introduction of an electronic regist er

and
combi ning
their
chili
and
fries
for chili
chees e
fries.
The
most recen t
chan ge took place last
Octob
er,
when
the
busin ess
bega n accep ting
credit
and
debit
cards
. “He
resist ed it for a long time,
but finally he gave in,”

Sherr
y said
about
her
husb
and.
Frank
,
Sherr
y and
Jame
s are
the only empl oyees
of the
busin ess,
so
when
they want
a vacati
on
the
busin ess
close
s
down,
often
to the
disma
y and compl aint
of
their loyal custo mers, Frank
said.

In the
last 50
years

,
Eureka
has
seen
chan ge
that includ es
the
growt h of
chain
fast-f ood
resta urant
s like
Burge
r
King,
McDo
nald'
s and Wend
y's.
Thou gh comp etition
has incre ased,
Frank
attrib utes
the
long life of his
busin ess to

a
stron g
custo mer
base.
Sherr
y said
they were worri ed
when Wend
y's
move
d
down
the street
, but
she said it
ultima tely
helpe d
Mike'
s by bringi ng
more
peopl e to
that part
of
town.
She
said Groce
ry
Outlet
and other
busin esses

that have come
to the area
have broug ht
more
custo
mers,
as
well,
and
so
the
busin ess is still going
stron
g.
“We lose
custo
mers
when
they
move
away,
but
that is about
it,” Frank
said.
“We
have actual ly
gotte n
calls
from
place

s like
Conn
ecticu
t,
Main
e and
Alask
a,
from
custo
mers
who
move
d
away
but really want
one of our chili
dogs.
We
have sent hot
dogs,
dry-ic
ed,
over
to the East
Coast
for them
—
hey, it's chea per
for
them
than comin g out here.

”
One
of the
most
defini ng
chara cterist
ics of Mike’
s is
its
garlic
fries.
Frank
said
he
often
gets check
s
made out to “Mike
’s Garlic
Fries,
” as
that is
evide ntly
how
the
check
writer
thinks
of the
busin ess.
When
he takes mone y and
check
s to

depo
sit at
the
bank,
the
tellers
frequ ently
tell him
the
cash
smell s of garlic.
Frank
displa yed
one
of the
T-shir
ts
sold
from
the
shop,
which
proud
ly
states
the motto
“We
adver
tise
by
word
of
mout h,”
which
he
said
is a tribut e to

the
garlic
breath one gets
from eating
the business's
garlic
fries.
Sue Parne
ll,
who
lives
in Scoti
a,
said
she first went to Mike's
in
the early 1950 s and
has been comin g
back
regul arly
since.
“I
love
the
garlic
fries,
espec ially —

you just can't get them
like this anyw
here
else," Parne
ll
said.
"This
place
is always
s
clean,
fast
and
the servic e is always
s
friend ly."

Copyright (C) 2005,
The Eureka
Reporter. All rights reserved.