"If you have built castles in the air, your work need not be lost; that is where they should be. Now put foundations under them."

~Henry David Thoreau

This quote got me through college. It helped me to place my dreams which seemed afar up close, and motivated me to fight to reach them. Simple words, that remind us that dreams is where we all start. It's ok to be a dreamer, now make those dreams come true! xoxoxo, Mom
