

Sarah's Garden

On the 18th of July I took a field trip with my friend, Patty to see a friend named Sarah. Sarah has a wonderful house with wonderful pets (she has a petting zoo almost!), and she has a front yard that is landscaped so well, it's to die for! Her backyard is a work in progress, but you can see that someday it will be something spectacular!

Here are some photos in Sarah's yard that I got! A sign welcomed us into her yard <http://i192.photobucket.com/albums/z177/pegrowe62/SarahsYard/sign.jpg>
