

Tired of all the Political Crap going around?

I am, so here is what I say about it: I don't want McCain for President either but, I'll be damned if I'm gonna vote for Hilary because she's a woman or Obama because he's 1/2 black! Obama really insulted all of our intelligences when he said that his grandmother was a "typical white woman" with racism "bred" into her. He can kiss my white -- well you got the picture! Out of frustration I think I'll write myself in for President! Here is what I will do! Take the BIGGEST BOMB we own and just get rid of Iraq. That will solve that problem. We can bring our kids home before we blast them! Take our SECOND BIGGEST BOMB and bomb IRAN, and will take care of that problem. I think I'd send our third biggest over to North Korea. That would probably make the rest of the world think twice before giving us a hard time again. Then I'd start working on the rest of our Foreign Policy. I'd cancel all monies being sent over seas. Meaning, no more handouts for the world.. we will pay for what we are buying but NO more monetary GIFTS to anyone, or any country. It's time to heal thyself! Once that was done, it would be time to work on Domestic Policy: With the monies saved from supporting the rest of the world we could probably afford to pay off the National Debt within a few years, AND afford Universal Health! I would get rid of our current tax system and have a cross the board, EVEN tax for everyone! I would probably start a project to fix up our National Roadway System. I would remind folks of their constitutional rights including the RIGHT TO BEAR ARMS and FIGHT FOR THEMSELVES IF THEY ARE UNHAPPY with THEIR government. And I would start a national education scheme that would be intended to Educate EVERY AMERICAN about certain FACTS: FREEDOM IS NOT FREE!!!! More kids die from drunk driving on our own ground per year than have died in this "war". I can't believe what a short memory Americans have. Short term memory and Long term memory! Americans are a bunch of two faced wimps who are just asking for them to come over and take over our country! And at this point, I kind of think we deserve it! Not because we go around making wars but because we've forgotten what our country was made with and who it was made for. It was handed to you and me on a silver platter by our forefathers, and because YOU didn't work for it, you take it for granted! Peggy (whose direct forefathers fought in the Revolutionary War, Spanish American War, Civil War, and whose uncles fought WWI, WWII, and whose father was in the Army during the Korean War doing his part, and whose husband is a veteran of the FIRST IRAQ war) Write in PEGGY FOR PRESIDENT!
